Court of Appeal Holds Special Court Session to Observe Earl Warren Week

San Diego—The Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, Division One will hold a special court session at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, February 3, 2009, to honor the memory of Earl Warren, the 14th Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court and the only three-term Governor of California, Presiding Justice Judith D. McConnell announced today.

Earl Warren College at the University of California, San Diego (UCSD) will hold a series of events to celebrate Earl Warren Week starting Monday, February 2, 2009. The special court session is a collaborative effort of the college and the Fourth Appellate District.

University students and the public are invited to attend the oral argument session, which is one of many held in the Fourth Appellate District to expand public understanding of the appellate court process.

Observers will view experienced attorneys argue their cases and respond to inquiries before the court. After the session concludes, the justices and counsel will discuss the appellate process and answer questions.

The cases to be argued are People v. Jenkins, D052448, involving search and seizure; County of San Diego v. 1560 N. Magnolia Ave., D052382, involving a zoning ordinance issue regarding adult businesses; and Taxpayers for Responsible Land Use et al. v. City of San Diego et al., D052084, involving a California Environmental Quality Act dispute.
